

AULD LANG SYNE

Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And never brought to mind?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot
And days o' lang syne?

CHORUS: For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne;
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne

And surely I'll be your pint-stoup,
And surely you'll be mine;
And we'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne

CHORUS

And here's a hand, my trusty fiere,
And gie's a hand o' thine;
And we'll tak' a richt guid-willie waucht
For auld lang syne

CHORUS

Robert Burns

PROBUS CLUB OF ALLANDER

BURNS LUNCH

THURSDAY
25TH JANUARY
2024

Burns Lunch

1-00 on 25th, January 2024

Order of Proceedings

President's Welcome

Singing in of the Haggis (Stephen Jenkins)

The Selkirk Grace (Leung Teh)

Address to the Haggis and Toast to the Haggis

The Lunch

MENU

Freshly Baked Bread Roll

Scottish Haggis, Baked Neps, Crispie Tatties with Tattieser Malt Whisky Sauce

Vegetarian Haggis

Homemade Steub and Ate Pie

Wild Mushroom Stroganoff

Served with Mashed Potatoes, Buttered Winter Greens and Carrots

Followed by Freshly Brewed Coffee and Tables

The Talk on Robert Burns (Leung Teh)

Musical Interlude

Scottish Airs (John MacMillan and Jean Maughan)

Burns Songs (Ken Wallace solo)

Communal Songs (Led by Ken Wallace [see song sheet])

Scottish Airs (John MacMillan and Jean Maughan)

Burns Songs (Leung Teh)

President's Closing Remarks

Auld Lang Syne (P.T.O.)